

This innovative team transformed a 200-year-old building into a delightfully rustic self-catering unit in the Karoo – without losing any of its platteland charm.

A collection of second-hand finds creates a traditional farm-style feel in the kitchen and the soft blue (Dulux Bonar Blue) used in combination with a neutral palette brings an element of serenity. >>